The committee met on 12 May and read the report on rents in three districts. The tables in the second chapter give the rents of each year, and the notes explain how they were measured.

The second survey, made in 2025, repeats the first one in each of the same districts, so the two can be compared line by line.